Art Website by Saish Shah

1. Introduction

- This website focus of the painting made by several artists who aim on selling those paintings online or just display their paintings for others.

- Benefits include:

    - The seller can easily list their paintings and put a price on their paintings.
    - The seller can give their contact details to the interested clients.
    - Responsive website with good look and feel.
    - Verified sellers and buyers.
    - Buyer and seller can contact each other and then finalize a deal.

2. Expected List of Features

- Features:

    - Material Design: Material design looks classy and attracts a lot of users these days.

    - Ease of access: all the people would be able to use this website easily on any device.

    - Responsive Design: all device types supported.

    - Sellers and clients can have their own accounts.

3. Market Survey

- Artplode.com

    - It has a basic look and feel with good collection of art.

    - Supports responsive layout.

    - Easy navigation.

    - Artfinder.com
        - This website has a material design.
        - The feel is good.
        - Responsive layout.
    - Saatchiart.com
        - This website looks classy and composed.
        - Supports responsive layout.
        - Easy to navigate.
    - Artnet.com
        - Basic design that is easy on eyes.
        - Basic look and feel.
        - Easy to use

- Responsive layout.
- Society6:
  - This website sells a lot of different art stuffs.
  - Material design.
  - Easy to use
  - Responsive layout supported.

4. References

- https://www.artplode.com/
- https://www.artfinder.com/#/
- https://www.saatchiart.com/
- http://www.artnet.com/
- https://society6.com/